THE SCYTHE FALLS IN SEVERAL RICHMOND HOUSEHOLDS.

MRS. CHARLOTTE DENNIS DEAD.

Mr. Stuart Turner and Mrs. Ney Also Numbered Among the Dead—Mr. Collins Buried with Masonic and Mr. Crouch Military Honors.

Mrs. Charlotte W. Dennis, widow of Dr. Benjamin Daniels, of Amelia, and mother of Rev. Benjamin Dennis, pastor of Meade-Memorial Episcopal church, Manchester, died Sunday afternoon at the residence, in Highland Park, of her son-in-law, Mr. W. H. Tyler, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue.

Deceased was in her 78th year, and during her long life had surrounded herself with many friends. She was a lady of the highest Christian character, of lovely disposition, and of brilliant mind, which was active up to the last. She bore her sufferings without a murmur, and died as peacefully as a child.

Mrs. Dennis leaves only two children—Mrs. Tyler and Rev. Benjamin Dennis. Mrs. John S. Harwood is her grand-daughter.

The funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. Tyler this morning. The officiating clergyman will be Rev. Fenner S. Stickney, assisted by Rev. Jabez Hall and Rev. Charles H. Boggs. The pall-bearers will be Messrs. H. M. Starko, C. M. Wingfield, Charles E. Cross, Charles B. Stacy, Linn B. Ensley, and William Spratley. The interment will be in Hollywood.

Mr. Stuart Turner Dead.

The many friends of Mr. Stuart E. Turner were pained to hear on Sunday morning of his death. He had been in poor health for some months, and latterly had been confined to his room, but his condition was not alarming, and his sudden death was a great surprise and shock to those with him.

Mr. Turner, or Stuart, as he was familiarly called by all who knew him well, was at one time a member of Mr. Frank Burke, in his connection established on Broad street. About five years ago he accepted a position with Mr. George Schoen, corner Eleventh and Main streets. Here he came in contact with hundreds of Richmond's citizens, and by his always cheerful disposition and obliging manners gained many acquaintances, who became at once his friends.

He was a devoted member of the First Baptist church, and a member of the Sunday-school class of Mr. Arthur B. Clarke. He was also a member of the Knights of Pythias and Junior Order of Mechanics.

His funeral will take place from the First Baptist church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. Dr. George Cooper officiating.

The pall-bearers have been selected from the officers of the church, and from the orders of which he was a member.

Deth of Mrs. Ann C. Ney.

Mrs. Ann C. Ney died on Sunday afternoon, after a lingering illness, at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. James F. Hankins, No. 128½ Main Street.

She was the widow of Mr. John Ney of Norfolk, and was a zealous Christian and well known to the charitable workers of the various Catholic churches of Richmond and Roanoke. Funeral services to-day at 12 M. at St. Mary's Catholic church, Norfolk, Va. She leaves three daughters—Mrs. J. R. Gillett, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Josephine C. Burgeson, and Mrs. James F. Hankins of Richmond, Va., and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren to mourn their loss.

Other Deaths on Sunday.

Miss Lolla A. L. Halfkenny, one of the teachers at the Hartshorne Memorial College, died at that institution Sunday, after three months' illness. She came here about two years ago from Wolfville, Nova Scotia. Her funeral will take place from the college chapel this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The remains will be buried in her old home for interment.

News reached this city yesterday of the death at Pulaski Sunday of Mrs. Martha Early, wife of Mr. Joseph G. Watta, formerly of this city. The body will reach Byrd-Street Station this morning at 8:30 o'clock, and the interment will take place in Hollywood.

Sunday night at 8 o'clock, at the Baptist Home, Mrs. Anna Eliza Jones died, after a painful illness, which she bore with Christian resignation. She was a beloved member of the Seventh-Street Christian church. Her funeral will take place from the home to-morrow at noon.

Buried with Masonic Honors.

All that was mortal of the late D. B. Collins, the well-known and well-beloved Mason, was laid to rest in Hollywood Cemetery Sunday afternoon with imposing ceremonies, conducted by his Masonic brethren. The funeral took place from the First Baptist church at 3:30 o'clock. There was a very large attendance, both of Masons and those who were not connected with the fraternity. The arrangements were in charge of Richmond Lodge, No. 19, H. M. Baykin, worshipful master, and Richmond Commandery, No. 2, Knights Templar, appointed as escort to the lodge. The Masons walked in procession from the Temple to the residence of the deceased, on north Fifth street, and from the residence to the church. From the church to Hollywood they rode in carriages. The services at the church were conducted by Rev. Dr. James Nelson, pastor of Emmanuel church, of which deceased was a member, assisted by Dr. Cooper. The latter made a beautiful and comprehensive prayer, in which he alluded to different virtues which had distinguished the deceased, and Dr. Nelson, in a brief address, told of Mr. Collins' character; of his strong and abiding faith in the Savior, and of his quiet resignation. The deceased constantly alluded to Heaven as his home, and to that home he journeyed with triumphant heart. The minister, in referring to the great change present at the funeral services, said that it was a tribute to goodness, as the body was being borne from the church the choir sang, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."

Funeral of Mr. Crouch.

Imposing services were held at R. E. Lee Camp Hall yesterday afternoon over the remains of Mr. Andrew Leiper Crouch, the camp's assistant surgeon, whose death on Saturday was noted in these columns.

The funeral was attended by a large gathering of comrades and friends of the deceased, and the services were conducted by Rev. J. P. Smith, chaplain of the camp. The body of the dead soldier was wrapped in a handkerchief, and encased in a handsome casket, which was almost hidden from view by numerous lovely floral designs. Many of the members of Lee and Pickett camps wore their uniforms, and followed the remains to Hollywood in carriages. At the hall Captain Frank W. Cunningham sang two soloes, in his usual sweetly-pathetic manner.

Burial of Brother Wiegand.

The funeral of Brother Lawrence Wiegand, of the Order of St. Benedict, took place from St. Mary's German Catholic church yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, with a solemn requiem high mass, and was attended by a throng that tested the capacity of the edifice. The obsequies were of most impressive character. The celebrant of the mass was Rev. Father John, Abbot of St. Benedict, while Rev. Father Wiegand, Order of St. Benedict, and Rev. Father Andrew, Order of St. Benedict, assisted in the respective capacities of deacon and sub-deacon. Attending in the sanctuary were a number of acolytes. The mass was chanted by the full choir of St. Mary's, under the direction of Professor Charles F. Mutter.

Doctor Van de Vyver delivered a touching eulogy on the life and work of the young father.

Special services were held over the grave, in St. Mary's Cemetery, where the interment was made.

Many Other Funerals.

The remains of Mrs. Mary Iraian Magill, who died in Galveston, Tex., last week, were laid to rest in Hollywood Sunday morning. The funeral took place from St. Paul's church at 10 o'clock, and was conducted by Rev. Dr. Hartley Crouch.

The funeral of Miss Annie Fairfield took place from Pine-Street Baptist church at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The funeral service over the remains of Miss Aurelia Picou was held Sunday at 3:30 P. M. at the First English Evangelical Lutheran church, of which she was a faithful and consistent member. She was a young lady of excellent character, and had a large circle of friends and relatives who mourn her decease.

The remains of Mrs. Evelyn Curle, wife of Policeman J. W. Curle, were laid at rest in Shockoe Cemetery yesterday morning. The funeral took place from Monumental church, of which the deceased had long been a prominent and valued member, at 11 o'clock. It was largely attended.

SONS TO GO TO NASHVILLE.

They Will Unite with the Veterans at the Reunion.

An interesting session of the Sons of Veterans was held at Lee-Camp Hall last night, and the committee appointed to make arrangements for the trip to Nashville during the reunion reported that about fifty Sons would attend from Richmond, and would be accompanied by a band of music.

Messrs. J. K. Nichols and Wyndham Bolling were elected to membership in the council, and a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. McAllister for his finished address last Monday night, and to the ladies and gentlemen who contributed to the pleasure of the occasion.
